HOHA Family Picnic Update

Dear Harvey Oaks Neighbors,

Recently the HOHA picnic committee sent out a short survey to all active members asking: "Due to Covid-19 would you attend a modified picnic event?" We had 169 households fill out the survey with almost 73% of the respondents saying that they would not attend the event this year.

Based on the responses, we've made the difficult decision to cancel this year's annual neighborhood picnic which was scheduled for Saturday August, 15th.

Over the past several months we've watched the COVID-19 pandemic unfold. With all the uncertainty it holds for the near future, we could not in good conscience hold the picnic. As much as we all were hoping that the event could go on as planned, we recognize that we must put the health and safety of our neighbors, family, friends, vendors, and sponsors first.

We appreciate all of the positive feedback for and against holding the picnic. Thank you for being so thoughtful, considerate and caring with your responses.

I would like to thank all of our committee members, board members and all of our neighborhood volunteers that make this a great neighborhood. Thank you for all that you do.

We will miss everyone this year but look forward to bringing you a reimagined picnic event in 2021. Take care of yourselves. We'll continue to do everything we can to help our neighborhood stay safe, informed, and connected.

A Message from the HOHA Social Committee

During these challenging and uncertain times, HOHA has been trying to create some degree of normalcy in the neighborhood. Through no fault of the committee, most social functions have been cancelled due to the COVID-19 virus' guidelines and restrictions.

However, HOHA has been active in the neighborhood and community. Financial contributions have been made to the following organizations/institutions.

- Youth Emergency Services (YES)-HOHA's designated charity for the year
- Harvey Oaks Elementary, and Millard North Middle and High Schools
- Boys and Girl Scout program associated with the above schools
- Renovations to the baseball practice diamond located at 151 and Shirley Street
- The updated holiday lights programs for the entrance islands

Hopefully, when things get back to normal, HOHA planned social activities can be held again. In the interim, HOHA is asking for your patience, understanding, and support. After all, "We are all in this together."

Thank You to These Volunteers

- John Brehmer, Reva, and John Neal for their work on the parking situation on Arbor Street.
- Carol and Mike Whetstine for their work on the entrance island at 114 and Harvey Oaks Avenue.
- Jim Grabenbauer and Tom Helm for their work and time dragging the ball diamond at 151 and Shirley Street.
- Marie Salistean for purchasing a Pet Waste Station for the Parks.
- John Brehmer and Avery Cavender for their work on the 148 entrance island.

THANK YOU ALL!

NO Parking Signs on the North Side of Arbor Street

Recently, signs have been placed along Arbor Street from 148 Street north to Castelar Circle restricting parking on the North side of Arbor Street. A petition was submitted to the City of Omaha requesting this no parking regulation.

The signs were placed as a safety measure. Currently with cars on both sides of Arbor Street, a fire engine would not be able to get down the street. If there was a fire, the property damage would be extensive.

Please observe these no parking signs allowing Harvey Oaks to be a safe neighborhood for residents.

Flags in the Neighborhood over the July 4 Holiday

The American flags in Harvey Oaks were placed by volunteers from Converge Church at 144 and Harvey Oaks Avenue. The flags helped make the neighborhood look festive during the recent holiday.

HOHA would like to thank the volunteers from Converge Church for their time and trouble making Harvey Oaks look patriotic.

There are many beautiful lawns in Harvey Oaks, help HOHA recognize these homeowners.

Here are Seven Ways to Recognize Risky Situations When Dealing with COVID-19

1. You're finding it hard to stay 6 feet away from others.

A safe situation is one where you can maintain 6 feet of space between yourself and people you don't live with. Droplets produced by talking, coughing or sneezing generally carry approximately 6 feet.

2. People aren't wearing masks.

Masks serve two purposes:

They protect you from exposure

They also prevent you spreading the virus to others if you are asymptomatic or presymptomatic.

Any two or three-ply cotton mask that covers the nose and mouth will work. Wash your hands before you put on your mask and after you take off your mask. If you wear a reusable mask, wash it regularly.

If you are returning to work in a shared office space, wearing a mask is a good idea. If you are working in a private office, it's okay to take off the mask when you're alone in your office. Just be sure to wear it when using common spaces like bathrooms, hallways and break rooms.

If you are wearing a mask, but others around you aren't, you're still in a risky situation, so be extra cautious.

3. You're inside.

Outdoor activities are generally safer than indoor activities. A study of more than 7,300 cases in China show that just one case was linked to outdoor transmission.

For example, playing golf in a small group outside is less risky than practicing yoga with a small group in an enclosed room. And eating inside a restaurant is much riskier than eating outside. If you are going to a restaurant, pick one with outdoor seating.

4. You're having contact with people you don't live with.

Sustained contact (more than 15 minutes) is a higher risk situation than brief contact. For example, stopping to talk to someone while you're out walking your dog is much riskier than just walking by and waving hello.

5. There are a lot of people around.

We are all craving social interaction, but please avoid large social gatherings. Try to restrict your circle to a small group of people you trust.

If you absolutely must host a social gathering, take precautions to minimize risk:

- Limit your guest list to 10 people or less
- Hold gatherings outside
- Place chairs or tables 6 feet apart
- Ask guests to bring their own coolers with beverages and snacks
- Reserve a designated bathroom for guests
- Put out disposable paper towels rather than a cloth towel
- Have disinfectant wipes available to wipe area after use

6. People are yelling, laughing or singing without masks on.

Talking, yelling, exercising and singing can spread infected respiratory droplets. Any time inhaling and exhaling occur there is potential to spread the virus.

Singing and yelling aerosolize respiratory droplets, or convert them into a fine spray. Follow that with deep breathing, and you can start to understand how easy it is for tiny viral droplets to invade your lungs.

7. Food is laid out on tables and counters or isn't individually served.

People sharing food utensils and congregating around areas where food is laid out can pose a risk. Try to avoid buffet-style serving situations. And if you plan to attend a gathering where this is happening, consider eating before you go or bring your own snacks and drinks.

What about herd immunity?

You may have heard talk about herd immunity. Herd immunity is the idea that when most of a population becomes immune to an infectious disease, it gives indirect protection to people who aren't.

The problem is that we don't know if people generate long-term immunity after they've had COVID-19. Some viruses only cause temporary immunity or none at all. If the virus that causes COVID-19 doesn't generate a durable immune response inside the body, the concept of herd immunity won't work.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that 70% or more of the population needs to have immunity to the coronavirus before herd immunity is achieved. Currently, it is estimated that Nebraska is well below this threshold. Even in the hardest hit areas, like New York City, studies indicate that only about 20% of residents have immunity.

Unfortunately, herd immunity isn't a realistic solution to the current pandemic. So it's up to all of us to choose safer activities over riskier ones, and take precautions in public.

Tip Top Thrift Shop Supports Youth Emergency Services

Tip Top Thrift Shop, located at 5910 Maple, is the major fundraiser for Youth Emergency Services (YES). If anyone has items they would like to donate, they can be dropped off at the Shop on Thursday, Friday, or Saturday 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

HELP KEEP HARVEY OAKS BEAUTIFUL, JOIN THE TEAM!

Jim Grabenbauer and Tom Helm are looking for volunteers to help maintain the entrance islands at 144 and Harvey Oaks Avenue and 148 and Center. The current volunteers have been asked to be relieved of these responsibilities. This would be for an hour or two to rake entrance islands, mulch trees, trim shrubs or putting up next season's greatly improved holiday lights as a work team. Email Jim at JPGRABEN@gmail.com or text 402-680-8080 to be part of the Harvey Oaks Parks team.

Reminder to Homeowners

Boats, campers, trailers, and RV's over 20 feet in length can't be parked or stored on residential property. If you are in violation, please take corrective actions. This is a City of Omaha zoning violation.

The Citizen's Patrol Urgently Needs Volunteers

What is the Citizen's Patrol?

A trained group of residents organized to increase the security of the neighborhood.

The Citizen's Patrol supplements the Neighborhood Watch Program.

The Citizen's Patrol is recognized and supported by the City of Omaha (City) including the Omaha Police Department (OPD).

Currently, there are Citizen Patrols in 35 neighborhoods in Omaha.

Purpose of Citizen Patrol

There are not enough police officers to patrol every street.

Police rely on residents of the area to inform them about incidents.

Deter vandalism or criminal activity by providing a visible presence on every street and cul-de-sac in Harvey Oaks each weekend.

Non-confrontational presence. Suspicious or illegal activities are reported to the OPD.

Make courtesy contacts with homeowners about garage doors inadvertently left open late at night or car windows left open, etc.

Opportunity for homeowners to participate in activities to improve Harvey Oaks.

Citizens Patrol Needs YOU

Qualifications to be a patroller are as follows:

- a current driver's license,
- ability to operate a car,
- availability once a quarter to patrol, (four times a year)
- interest in keeping your neighborhood and home safe.

The Citizen's Patrol has been instrumental in preventing crimes, and keeping the neighborhood safe. Husbands and wives can patrol as a team.

If you are interested or would like more information on this project, contact Rudy Padilla, 402-513-6015. Volunteers always go out with a partner in the car.
